The parsimoniousness of King William of Prussia, so far as dress is concerned, has become proverbial in Prussia. The latest joke told on his Majesty, in this connection, is too good not to be recorded. It is a rule at all the courts of Europe that the cast of clothes of the royal and imperial personages belong to their valets de chambre, who sell them and pocket the proceeds. The perquisites of some royal valets are very lucrative in consequence, but King William's valet looks very grim and morose when this subject is alluded to. Recently, thinking that his royal master had worn a coat about two or three years longer than he ought to have done, he had a new one made, and one morning, when his Majesty awoke, he found that his cherished old coat had disappeared from the chair in front of his bed, and that a new one was hanging there in its stead. The bold valet was summoned to the royal presence. "Where is my old coat, Jean?" "I have taken it away, your Majesty, it is no longer fit to be worn." "What are you going to do with it, Jean?" "I believe I am going to sell it." "How much do you think you will get for it?" This was hard to answer, for no frippery in the world would have given five cents for the old coat. Jean, therefore, hesitated a moment, and answered that, "I believe I will get about a dollar for it, your Majesty." The King took his pocket-book from the night table, opened it and handed Jean a dollar. "Here, Jean," he said, "is your dollar. That coat is so comfortable. Bring it back to me, I want it yet."

ENDING OF A "PIG CASE" IN ST. MARY'S CO., MD.—The St. Mary's Beacon says: The celebrated pig case, which has been progressing for several weeks past between Smith vs. Smith, in a neighboring district, and which it was thought at one time would have to be carried up to the Court of Appeals, was amicably settled. We are pleased to state, on Saturday last, by a compromise. It was agreed upon the one part, that the possessor of the pig should have it baked and brought into court on a certain day, and upon the other part, that on the same day a pone of bread should be forthcoming, and that the parties litigant, with their friends, should eat and be merry, share and share alike. It was further stipulated and agreed that the fees of the attorney and officers in the case should be confiscated and applied to certain liquid purposes, and further, that there should be a general shaking of hands all around. A difficulty was suggested as to the proper pocket entry to be made by this compromise, but this was happily avoided by putting after the cause of action and the names of the parties to the suit, the words following, that is to say, "Pig Bt."

GEN. STONEMAN, the new Military Commander, in Va., is a native of New York. He was a cadet at West Point from July 1, 1842, to July 1, 1846, when he graduated, and was promoted in the army to brevet second lieutenant. First Dragoons; served in the war with Mexico; promoted to second lieutenant, First Dragoons; served 12, 1847, and to first lieutenant, in July 1854; served as aid to Gen. Wool in 1855; promoted to captain in Second Cavalry March 3, 1855. He served in the operations on the Rio Grande against Cortinas' marauders in 1859-'60, being engaged in the combats near Fort Brown, Texas. 1859. Gen. Stoneman was a distinguished Federal officer in the late war, and attained to the rank of Major General of Volunteers. His career is well remembered. His last feat before the close of the war was to destroy the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad nearly its entire length.

NATURAL GAS WORKS.—A few months ago while workmen were boring a well in the rear of the premises on Gravier street, New Orleans, gas was struck at a depth of forty feet from the surface. On a match being applied to the end of the tube this gas ignited readily and burned with a strong clear flame. It was allowed to burn thus for several days and nights, during which time many persons visited the spot; and then a meter was added and the gas introduced into the establishment, which has been lighted by it ever since. A similar discovery was made in a like manner in another portion of the city, the gas pouring out with such violence that on being imprudently ignited an explosion took place, the building was speedily wrapped in flames, and would have been destroyed but for the exertions of the Fire Department. The result of these discoveries has been the formation in New Orleans of the "Louisiana Natural Gas Company."

SENATOR DOUGLAS' REMAINS.—A dispatch from Chicago says the trustees of the Douglas Monument Association, accompanied by a son of the late Mr. Douglas, and others, proceeded, Monday evening, to inspect the remains, preparatory to the formal removal of them from the grave to the mausoleum on Wednesday. Upon removing the lid covering the glass, the face of the illustrious Senator was found to be in a remarkable state of preservation, almost as natural as when buried seven years ago, excepting that the eyes are more sunken, the nose more contracted, and the surface of the forehead somewhat indented or pitted but the complexion is very fair, the contour of the head and face apparently unchanged, and the expression quite natural, and plainly recognizable. The hair looks as glossy and black as ever, and the raiment as neat and tidy as when first put on, not presenting the least evidence of mildew or discoloration.

The seventeen year locusts, which are so common, in particular seasons, in some parts of this country, and which made their last appearance in this region in the spring of 1851, are again showing themselves. Although they are thought about every seventeen years, it is apparent, probable that the periods of their return vary according to the heat of the climate and other circumstances.

A million dollars worth of seals have been landed in Newfoundland during the last ten weeks.

THE ONLY PLACE WHERE A CURE CAN BE OBTAINED.

DR. JOHNSON has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, and only Effectual Remedy in the World for Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Langour, Low Spirits, Constipation of the Bowels, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Liver, Throat, Nose, or Skin, Affections of the Lungs, Lungs, Stomach, or Bowels—those Terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the most violent Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN,
Especially, who have become the victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most excellent talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entered listening Senators with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.
Married Persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of Physical Weakness, Organic Debility, Deformities, speedily cured.
He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS
Immediately cured and full vigor restored.
This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impropriety. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost, even by those failing to improve habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The System becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Consumption, Decay and Death.

DR. JOHNSON,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, &c., and where, he has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.
Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by intemperance and indulgence in solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.
These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.
Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption.

YOUNG MEN,
Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are rightly felt, even when asleep, and, if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.
What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain pernicious habit. Such persons must, before contemplating effect that a sound mind and body are the necessary requisites to promote conjugal happiness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view, and occasions a state of mind, despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with your own.

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.
When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure indulges in the use of the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery detours him from applying to those, who from education and respectability, can alone benefit him. Delaying until the constitutional symptoms of this disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sorethroat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the skin, and eruptions, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the patient of this terrible disease, in death, death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveler returns."
It is a MOST HORRIBLE FACT that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskillfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that DEADLY POISON, MERCURY, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable.
